MORE THAN PERFUME — our scents are sacred anointing oils.

At Chakruna, every oil is crafted with intention and prayer.

Anointing is an ancient sacred practice — a moment to slow down. To breathe, pray, and remember the temple that lives within you.

Our oils are perfect for:

Meditation · Prayer · Ceremony · Self-devotion · Ritual ·
Rest · Sacred gathering · Transitions · Grief · Rebirth

Choose the oil that calls to you. Anoint with love.
Remember who you are.

Our sacred botanical oils are created to support moments of care, ritual and connection with the body. They can be applied gently onto the skin as an anointing oil, blended with carrier oils for massage, or used as part of daily self-care practices.

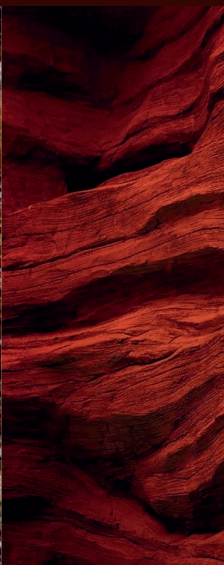

A few drops can be added to a warm bath, placed in a diffuser to fill a space with their aroma, or applied lightly into the hair or beard. The oils carry the natural essence and fragrance of the plants, flowers and resins from which they are crafted.

Due to the fermentation process, these oils develop very concentrated aromas and properties. They are not suitable for ingestion – for external use only!
